

Productivity Assessment

Productivity Questions

Productivity includes a good scheduling of your time, follows safety procedures, conserves materials used, has a neat and clean work area, and follows direction.

Provide other examples of good productivity?

Why is productivity important in the workplace, and what actions you would take to improve workplace productivity?"

Some people believe that work, rather than leisure, can give them what they are looking for and is an outlet for self-expression as well as material rewards. Do you agree or disagree with this statement? Why?
